SARCI News:

BASIC SEARCH TRAINING is being held March 31 and April 1. Rendezvous will be at 0830 on the northwest corner of Ina and Thornydale roads. The training will be held in the Ragged Top area. There will be no facilities, but families are welcome to enjoy a campout. Food will be provided for an evening cookout by SARA. Please bring plenty of water for personal use. The Silverbell Peak 15' quad will also be very helpful. Call Loma Griffith (883-3115) for further information.

SARA dues are now payable. Members who have not paid their dues by the April meeting will be considered delinquent. When dues are two months past due, members will be dropped by the Board at the July meeting.

The Pima County Mounted Sheriff's Posse rode in the Papago Tribal Parade at Sells on March 24.

Darren Cummings has several hundred feet of old fire hose which can be used for rope padding or whatever. Anyone interested may call Darren at 883-7126.

DIVERS April practice to be announced. Call Mykle's machine (795-2383) or Fran Kunz (886-2216) for information.

SARA Basic Rescue Training will be held May 19-20. Anyone who is willing to help teach should contact Rich Kunz (886-2216). All applicants who are interested in taking this training must have their dues paid, medical requirement completed and approval by the Board of their group by the April Board meetings.

Advanced First Aid classes are being taught by the American Red Cross. Anyone who needs a class to qualify for search and rescue or to keep his medical qualifications up to date may sign up for the classes by signing up at the American Red Cross and paying the required non-refundable fee.

The Advanced First Aid Manual is being revised by the American Red Cross. Anyone interested in reviewing the rough draft and offering additions or updates should call Dave Brown (622-1287) or Frances Walker (798-9399) by the second week in April.

Applications for SARA may be obtained from Shirley Palmer (299-8689). Other SARA members will please hand out information only. Initial dues are $15.00 for new members ($10.00 initiation fee + $5.00 yearly dues). All members dues are payable now.
