SARCI NEWS:

New Year's Eve party is being held in the home of Rich and Fran Kunz (1329 S. Marc Dr) from 7-12pm. Food will be provided--bring whatever you like.

And if you survive that, the Annual Steve Smith Prominent Point Hike will be the next day (Jan. 1) beginning at 0800 at the east end of Magee going up Pima Canyon. This has become an annual affair to make sure that Steve doesn't get lost again.

The first SARA training session of the new year will be held on January 11 with rendezvous at 0800 at the M Craycroft Gate. The subject: Vertical Ropes and "Stuff". Don't miss this opportunity to keep your skills honed!

Tom Harlan will be resuming his monthly hikes in January. If you're interested in coming along, give Tom a call (885-4194).

American Red Cross will be offering another Advanced First Aid class beginning on January 13th at 222 S. Cherry. Enrollment is limited so phone the Safety Dept. at 623-0541 to register if you're interested.

For Sale: 2 VHF-FM mobile radios. 1 pr climbing shoes (9 1/2) and other climbing gear. Call Chris Eddle (1-825-3045 eves).

On February 2nd the Divers will hold their Underwater Orienteering with a party after at Nate's. Bring a salad or whatever. All SARCI members are welcome.

The February SARA meeting will be a Potluck and Awards night. Any nominees for special awards should be made to Jim Gilbreath (792-0775).

Basic Training for new members (and old) will be held the weekend of January 17-19 with the schedule as follows:

Jan. 17-1800 Rendezvous with families at entrance parking lot to Catalina State Park for a potluck dinner.

1820 Serving line starts

1830-2100 SARCI Orientation

This is a new way of conducting our orientation and will be directed not only toward the new members but their families as well so they will feel welcome and also be familiar with SARCI.
