SARCI NEWS:

ELEVEN WINNERS COMPLETE VERTICAL MILE CLIMB

All entrants were winners in the climb and seemed to have a great time doing it. The first three to place were: Jeff Mayhew and friend, Nate Shechter, and Walter Pickett. Other participants (not necessarily in order of completion) were: Stan Caldwell, Mike Birkett, Mike Fraser, George Simons, John Bangert, Loma Griffith and Bob Birkett. Bob and Nate were the only two that completed the Half Vertical Mile in September. Many thanks to George Price for his coordinating efforts and to Loma, Bob and George for their generous contributions toward the prizes. A fun day for all and too bad for those of us who missed it.

VOLUNTEERS WILL BE NEEDED...

...in early December to help certify the Arizona Mountaineering Club as well as Central Arizona Mountain Rescue Association. Call Marvin Stafford for details (575-1497).

CONGRATULATIONS TO...

...newly licensed Technician Class Radio Amateur, Carl Newberg. His new call sign is M7IQU. Several others should be following Carl's lead. AMC also has a licensed amateur on their team which will help in coordinating efforts in joint rescue operations. And Bill Croghan (CAP) is now assigned as Radio 9.

AN EMT COURSE MAY BE OFFERED...

...this fall. Although college credit will not be available, state certification is possible. If interested, call Rich Kunz (886-2216).

A WARM WELCOME TO...

...the recent class having completed SARA Basics: Mary Moran, Jan Lindstrom, Debbie Lawrence, Jesus Urbina, Terry Van Wie, Marilyn Castor, Pat Kuvik, Aaron Reyes, Bob Mason, and Ed Mannlein. We'll all be watching for eager new faces on callouts. Don't hesitate to introduce yourself a few times.

PLEASE DON'T CALL...

...Base Stations for callout information until you have checked with Mykle's machine (795-2303). Usually all the info you need is there and radio traffic for the Base Stations can get heavy at that time.

TANQUE VERDE FALLS TRAIL UPDATE

Exceptionally good progress has been made and the trail is nearing completion from the road to the canyon bottom. Due to the short days, the Weds. and Fri. work efforts will stop but Saturday mornings (8-12) will continue until the work is finished.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

...organized search and rescue efforts in Southern Arizona began 28 yrs ago as a result of a search for three Boy Scouts who froze to death on Mt. Wrightson on Nov. 16, 1958? SARA was actually organized the April prior but did not become effectively functioning until after the winter storm tragedy.

FIVE MEMBERS OF PIMA COUNTY SEARCH & RECOVERY DIVERS...

...attended the 3-day First Annual Joint Agency Dive Seminar in Phoenix last month. They would all like to thank Maricopa County Sheriff's Dept. and the K.C. Johnson's Search & Recovery Foundation for an excellent seminar and a superb job of coordinating all of the activities.

ANOTHER FIRST PLACE RATING FOR THE POSSE...

as the Best Mounted Group in the Green Valley parade. They will also be in the U of A homecoming parade soon. Don Traister has been appointed as new Search and Rescue training chairman since Butch Lieber has become an Associate member. Also note, Board meetings are now on the first Thursday of each month.
