DEMON DOCTORS: Physicians as Serial Killers

Galen Press, 577-8363, www.galenpress.com, sales@galenpress.com

Why do doctors become serial killers? How do they kill? Do they share any common characteristics? Have there been many physician-killers in history? To his surprise, the author found the answer to the last question was "yes". In this first volume of a series, Dr. Kenneth V. Iserson has assembled eight profiles of some of the most heinous physician-mass murderers. These doctors violated their solemn oath to "do no harm" and exploited the trust inherent in the patient-doctor relationship for their own ends. The book also describes why doctors become serial killers, how they kill, the characteristics of "typical" serial killers, and the science of profiling.

Hello All, from the Dog Team. We want to thank you all for the donations for our annual yard sale. We have currently the White enclosed trailer and the 16' Jon boat yet to sell if anyone is interested. They are at the SARA House.

"Powder", Tracy's dog is now mission ready as an air scent dog. We are out at the fair doing demo's this year. We still invite anyone who wishes to come to our trainings to come along and learn some insight into what the dogs do. We shall be going up to the Arizona SAR Conference in Prescott in May. Info is on the bulletin board at the SARA House.

TRAINING REVIEWS

by Walter Pickett, Wpick85706@aol.com

April 06 ICS/Search Operations

Thanks to Cathy Wasmann, Jim Gilbreath and of course Tom Harlan for a great classroom session on Search. We had a very good turn out for this training and I think a lot of new people got psyched for the chance to go out on a search. The Training Committee would hope next year to expand this class to a seminar on Basic Search.

April 10 Introduction to Caving

I'm afraid to say that there was a very poor turn out for this class. This was a classroom session for SARA/SARCI personel. The intent was to introduce people to the unique cave environment and more importantly, cave conservation.

I want to thank Dave Hamer, Henry Schneiker (of SARA), Brent Cook and Jean Paul Jerguera (of Escabrosa Grotto) for their time and effort.

April 13 Caving trip to the Cave of the Bells

This was another poor turn out as well. But you missed a great cave trip!!! Just ask Jim from OEC.

Though people sometimes think of caves as deep, dark, forbidding places, we found beauty, uniqueness, fun, and adventure. This is the cave we will be using for the Cave Rescue on May 04. In fact, Dave Hamer and I discussed where we will place our victim(s) for the training.

Of course Jim has forgotten everything we said about that, and if you ask him to trace his steps back through the cave, he will tell you that it will be very difficult.

Thanks again to Dave Hamer for helping out on the trip!

ATTP Sessions

by Jeff Merrell, 531-5902 pager

For those who would like to review their basic technical skills (SARA Orange Card items), Jeff Merrell will hold "Augmented Testing, Training and Proficiencies" (ATTP) sessions every third and fourth Wednesdays, 18:00 to 21:00, at the SARA House. These sessions will be held while people continue to participate.

EMT's and OEC's Wanted

by Jim Gilbreath, 647-7635, jbgarchitect@theriver.com

First Aid positions are available at the Boy Scout Camp on Mount Lemmon. Must hold current EMT or OEC or higher medical certification and current CPR card. Stay at Camp Lawton health lodge. Teach First Aid merit badge. Age 21 or older. Weekly slots are available from June 2 through July 21. Contact Mr. Wade Hatch at the Catalina Council Boy Scout Office, 750-0385 or wade@catalinacouncil.org

TRAINING SCHEDULE

May 04	Cave Rescue	Aug 03	Basic Rock / Rope	Nov 02	Mine Rescue
June 08	Helicopter	Aug 17 or 24	Advanced Rock / Rope	Dec 07	Advanced Technical Rescue
June 22	Desert Survival	Sept 07	Map & Compass
July 06 or 13	River Rescue	Oct 05	Night Search / Tracking

May 03 18:30, Friday Introduction to Caving Location: SARA House, 3455 N. Craycroft

This will be a shortened version of the class that we had April 10 for those who missed due to other commitments.

We'll meet before the SARA General Meeting

After the SARA Meeting, the program will be about Cave Rescue. We'll show the video from the Cave Rescue Training that Bob Buecher did two years ago, and discuss a couple of topics related to Cave Rescue. The program should not be longer than 1 hour.

I hope you will all come early and stay for the program.

May 04 08:00, Saturday Cave Rescue Training Meet: "108", Irvington and Houghton

Members of the local Grotto, Central Arizona Grotto, Kartchner Caverns Rangers and a couple from CAMRA will be participating. We don't know yet which cave we'll have permission to use. Be prepared for some Single Rope Techniques to be utilized as well as some good "dirty" fun to be had by all.

A woman has reported to the Deputy that her Father & her two children are overdue from a caving trip to Cave of the Bells. The Mother reports that her Father is an experienced Caver & knows Bells very well. She also reports that the two children are in good shape & have been caving elsewhere for several years.

This is the annual SARA Cave Rescue Training. Members of the local Grotto, Kartchner Caverns Ranger & maybe a couple from CAMRA will be participating. You probably do not need your harness & personal ascending/descending devices, but we will probably need to rig a vertical haul & lower in at least one place in the cave.

June 08 08:00, Saturday Helicopter Training Meet: Ranger Base, 6868 S. Plumer

We will meet at the airport (south Plumer Ave. off Valencia, in the parking lot just south of Ratliff Aviation) and the training will be for hover ingress/egress. This training is NOT for new candidates, as DPS has very limited air time. Participants should be on time or they will be locked out. Airport security is tight.

June 28-29 TBA, Fri-Sat Desert Survival Training Meet: Ranger Base, 6868 S. Plumer

Still working the details on this one. George Price, (an old member of SARA) wrote the Desert Survival section for the Army and Marine Corps. He has also taught Desert Survival at The Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum for years. George is a very informative instructor, has lots of experience in the Sonoran desert & knows the mission of SARA. George has retired from SARA and has hiked some of the Arizona Trail. He plans to walk the entire length (north to south) sometime in September.

A couple hiked to Mt Kimball, and while simply walking down the trail below the spring, one of them twisted his ankle. He was not able to put any weight on his splinted leg, so we carried him by stokes down trail, then over the fence to the Mehl's residence.

A couple that lives in Ireland most of the time had returned to Tucson. The gentleman wanted to get back in shape and had been doing some walking. He tried a longer hike, and was returning from Wasson Peak when he tired and ran out of water. A park ranger met him at the saddle where the Hugh Norris and SE (Sendero – Esperanza) trails meet. Volunteers joined them, and after resting and rehydrating they strolled down to the trailhead.

Two hikers became disoriented at Marshall Saddle while using a simple trail map with numbered trails. They called for help by cellphone. Teams made voice contact from near the saddle and retrieved the pair a short distance down the Wilderness of Rocks Trail.

-------	--------	-----	-------	----------------------------	--------------------------------	--------------------------------

One of a group of hikers from Rancho Vistoso tired while returning from Romero Pools. He had a history of cardiac problems and thought that he recognized the onset of a heart attack, so he popped his medications and was possibly affected by overdoing it. A medic and a couple SAR people were ferried with a litter by Ranger to the scene just past the "slot". He was carried to the landing pad near the Visitors Center and transferred to LifeNet.
